TERMS & GENERAL PROGRAM INFORMATION

Payroll Deduction Pledges: All payroll deductions begin January 2027. This may be either one-time or per-pay-period contributions. The total contribution for the year should be written in the My Total Contribution box on the other side. Pledge forms must be signed by the donor.

Credit Card Pledges: Employees pledging to make credit or debit card payments within one year in the future. Employees electing to make credit card payments should visit www.unitedwayabilene.org and click DONATE to execute payment. This is the most secure way for donors to provide credit card information. Pledge forms must be signed by the donor.

Bank Draft Pledges: Employees pledging to make or bank draft (electronic check) payments. These employees must include a voided check with their pledge forms. United Way of Abilene will execute bank drafts as indicated on the pledge form. Pledge forms must be signed by the donor.

Bill Me Pledges: Employees who want United Way to bill the employee directly on a one-time or periodic basis within one year in the future. Pledge forms must be signed by the donor.

Leadership Gifts: A contributor who makes a gift of $1,200 or more qualifies for status to one of United Way of Abilene's giving designations in any calendar year either as an individual or jointly with spouse and will receive recognition in United Way of Abilene publications and social media. Leadership donors may indicate acknowledgment preferences on their pledge forms.

Alexis de Tocqueville Society: Ensures that basic and emerging needs are met for our neighbors. To qualify for this leadership level, donors must make a minimum gift of $10,000 annually. The Alexis de Tocqueville Society is the highest level of philanthropy for the United Way Annual Campaign.

Planned Giving: Please remember United Way of Abilene in your will or estate plans and share with us when you do. Call 325-677-1841 or visit unitedwayabilene.org.
